

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Jan. D. & V. G. Babage, Editors and Proprietors
WEDNESDAY, JULY 10, 1894.

Subscription Price $1.00 - Year in Advance.
If Paid at the End of the Year $1.25.

SIX PAGES.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress
ALEX B. MONTGOMERY.

For County Judge
JOHN ALLEN MURRAY.

For County Attorney
MILTON BOARD.

For County Clerk
R. C. RICHARDSON.

For Sheriff
F. K. RHODES.

For Assessor
HENRY GARNER.

For Surveyor
A. A. LAHEY.

For Jailer
J. S. DELERETTE.

For Coroner
WM. EMBRY.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Congress
JOHN W. LEWIS.

For County Judge
W.H. AHN.

For County Attorney
R. N. MILLER.

For County Clerk
J. O. CUNNINGHAM.

For Sheriff
S. P. PATE.

For Assessor
W. E. DODGERY.

For Surveyor
CHINTZ ROYALTY.

For Jailer
GEORGE SHELLMAN.

For Coroner
JOE TAIL.

PEOPLES PARTY TICKET.

For County Judge
S. E. WAGGONER.

For County Clerk
A. M. HARDIN.

For Assessor
C. A. PENIC.

For Surveyor
H. C. JOHLY.

For Jailer
JOHN NEVITT.

For Coroner
WM. CREWS.

Ma. Cleveland should stiffen his backbone some more and write Congress another letter.

The Hon. Chas. Blaundell was at the plante last Saturday to muddle the muddle for Gen. P. Watt Hardin.

Is the war to keep up in China there will be an increased demand for opium or tobacco tea, weed, the catnip.

When you strike a prohibition county like Grayson with whisky you hit it in a tender spot, and the chances are that you will turn its tops to the sun.

It is not money, sugar, free silver, or a fat office that we want just now, but a big soaking rain. May the Lord bless us one and all with a regular pour-down.

The August report by the government statistician gives the average condition of the crop at the beginning of this month as only 70 per cent, which means a shortage of one thousand millions of bushels from what was expected a month ago.

The annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Union convened at Louisville August 28, 29 and 30. A most interesting and instructive session and a large attendance is expected. The railroads have made a rate of one fare for the round trip. Full particulars can be secured from the county officers or from Miss Mamie F. Huber, Secretary at Louisville.

The Breckinridge News must be congratulated now that the Evening Post has more accurate information concerning politics in the Fourth district than could be gathered from the columns of the Courier.

When it comes to an old grannie, "I told you so," the Post positively removes the dilapidated lines of the shrubbery. Of course it predicted Mr. Montgomery's nomination, as many other papers did, without any new information, yielding everything that the present tariff might be stopped, and the country have an opportunity to once more settle down on a business base that will stand for a few years, at least. After passing the tariff bill, the House then passed separate bills placing iron, coal, sugar and tobacco in the same class. Then the Senate will have to consider whether the Democratic Democrats in the Senate will sit tight against the wishes of the people.

The Breckinridge News made a strong fight for the convention, but in the light of the new information, it is evident that the general belief Murray became a candidate, it was only natural that the Post should predict that he would be nominated.

It is just what we said before the primary, and if Dave Murray is at right here, we will say it is so, too, that we had rather see Alex Montgomery go down than have the country split.

The Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

This silver always and beautiful, but Ohio, claims about two victims from Cloverport annually. Will Morton, one of our best and most exemplary young men, is the first this season.

As we remember correctly about a month ago the Meade Messenger said that Montgomery would carry Meade county six to one over Murray. The result is still fresh in the mind of the people.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot. The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

The highest rate of interest is self-interest, and it is greatly to your interest to have your jewelry of T. C. Lewis & Co.

J. T. Kingdon advertises the old fair ground near the river for sale this week.

Mr. W. S. Beard returned from Mineral Springs last week, for vacation.

The people of Clifton Mills are making preparations to entertain the Presbyterians which meets there soon.

J. D. Bush, of Hawesville, will be in Hardin August 29th, to remain one week, and practice his profession.

Rev. Joseph Keenan, from the Tar Fork neighborhood, was here Sunday and preached in the M. E. church.

The Master Commissioner will offer the Peep Farm, lying near Irvington, for sale at the court house next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hawell and Mr. Frank Hawell, wife and children spent a couple of days last week at the Tar Springs.

The highest rate of interest is self-interest, and it is greatly to your interest to have your jewelry of T. C. Lewis & Co.

Rev. H. C. Hook is conducting the integrated meeting at Freshwater this week. Rev. Watson, one of their absent preachers, will be there the latter part of this week.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

We are Democrats, wish to acknowledge our superior advantages in our newspaper. Now its political and state champion. The news is the best, the editor the best, the campaign just ended in this district, will tell all the arguments that we should be supported.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Democratic nomination, will be here Saturday.

John Lewis, himself, is the man.

He can't speak for the other two gentlemen, but as far as Mr. Blaundell is concerned, we feel safe in remonstrating that he will never enter the Democratic nomination. We will support him in his stand, as he is a good man, and a good support as a Republican, as the Messenger gave him less than a year ago by doing the lady act before the Democratic primary.

The tariff bill passed the House last Monday with the Senate amendment.

It is not money, sugar, free silver, or a fat office that we want just now, but a big soaking rain. May the Lord bless us one and all with a regular pour-down.

The August report by the government statistician gives the average condition of the crop at the beginning of this month as only 70 per cent, which means a shortage of one thousand millions of bushels from what was expected a month ago.

The annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Union convened at Louisville August 28, 29 and 30. A most interesting and instructive session and a large attendance is expected.

The railroads have made a rate of one fare for the round trip. Full particulars can be secured from the county officers or from Miss Mamie F. Huber, Secretary at Louisville.

The Breckinridge News must be congratulated now that the Evening Post has more accurate information concerning politics in the Fourth district than could be gathered from the columns of the Courier.

When it comes to an old grannie, "I told you so," the Post positively removes the dilapidated lines of the shrubbery.

Of course it predicted Mr. Montgomery's nomination, as many other papers did, without any new information, yielding everything that the present tariff might be stopped, and the country have an opportunity to once more settle down on a business base that will stand for a few years, at least. After passing the tariff bill, the House then passed separate bills placing iron, coal, sugar and tobacco in the same class. Then the Senate will have to consider whether the Democratic Democrats in the Senate will sit tight against the wishes of the people.

The Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

By mutual consent the candidates, who had gathered at the Hotel last Saturday, agreed not to make any speech or statement.

They were afraid that the report was in circulation that the Democrats were afraid to meet the Republicans on the stump. That was a brilliant break, now wasn't it?

Why, if there is a ten-year-old Democratic school-boy in Breckinridge county who is not able to successfully debate with any Republican candidate on the ticket, the last school census don't show it.

TRUE. It seems that the fate just now have it in for Henry Morton, only a few weeks ago he had his thigh broken while at work at his mill and now he is bowed with grief over the loss of his oldest son by drowning. The news extends heart-felt sympathy.

W. Y. ATKINSON, the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia, earned the money to pay his expenses by hawking his wares in Louisville.

The people of Covington, in which village he was born, is a lawyer by profession, but a man of small fortune. He is known as the "Wagon Boy of Covington."

The Meade County Messenger did good work for Judge Montgomery. It gave the Herald considerable information and a history of one of Judge Montgomery's home towns.

Everyone knew that the Meade County Messenger was just as solid for Montgomery as Ben Johnson could possibly have wished, but Meade county wasn't sold by a dog of a sight.

It will be seen that Gov. Brown is still standing by his friends, in his appointment of the Hon. Isaac M. Tracy, of Paducah, to fill the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench, caused by the death of Chief Justice Bennett. Mr. Quigley is less than thirty-five, is a bright young lawyer and a still brighter politician. His age we should think would hardly permit of his having the experience of which a Chief Justice should possess.

In the county conventions held in the Second Congressional District last Saturday, Clardy received 362, McLean 2, and 10 others. The result of the semi-battue of a vote is unanimous.

The district convention will meet in (Towmorrow) to-morrow and Dr. Clardy will lack one and four-tenths votes for a nomination on the first ballot.

The Owensboro Messenger, however, has no doubt about it, for he will surely enough come to give him the nomination.

Mr. Lewis himself, coming in the Fourth Congressional District. We will add, however, that we could not have predicted, nor could Ben Johnson have bought Breckinridge county away from Jim Wortham.

The Republicans are showing bad political management by starting out thus early on a campaign of misrepresentation.

Awarded
Highest Honors—World's Fair.
DR.
PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.
A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder, Free
from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant, 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1894.

Notice to Subscribers.

The owner of the label desires the time to which your subscription is paid. This serves both as a receipt an expiration date and every week you will receive a new label with the name on the margin of this paper, and see if it is correct. If it is not, and you have paid your time has expired, please renew at once.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

The Lander—Palace Saloon.
New line of glasses at Babbage's.
For milk toast go to the City Bakery.
Nock wear at a great reduction at Lab's.

Have you tried the fine fresh cakes at——Suzie's.

Bonami to shiny your glass were up.—
—Suzie's.

Fruit, crackers and cakes just received at the City Bakery.

Hot weather clothing that will keep you cool—Suzie's.

Suspenders are in full blast at Babbage's—Call and see.

Building material—nails, hinges, locks and pins.—Suzie's.

Extra—Suzie's—Pineapple—cycloons and custards—Suzie's.

Pure old whisky and brandy for medical use—Palace Saloon.

We will handle from now on, all the tropical fruits—Babbage.

Come in and take a look at our new line of glasses at prices that will be unequalled for you—Suzie's.

Cherry stone lunch cyrsters—try a box
—something new—Suzie's.

Born, Monday, the 13th inst., to the wife of Scott Vance, a baby boy.

Crude Carbolic acid is being used for destroying disease germs—Suzie's.

Wanted regular and transient boarders
Mrs. Moly Jolly, the old Bassett House.

What is the use to drink beer? beer?

—you get it cold at the Palace Saloon

The prettiest line of 5c., 10c., and 25c. tablets "you ever seen" are at Babbage's.

From now on you can get all the latest publications in literature at Babbage's.

If you don't see what you want to drink, call for it—we have it—Palace Saloon.

Something new—condensed coffee for lunches and picnics—made in one minute—Suzie's.

Squirrels are ripe—the hickory trees are full of them—nuts, shells and such like—Suzie's.

Just this week only—3q. best note paper and one bunch of envelopes for two cents.

There is the new iron bridge, over Clover Creek. In this city is rising mansion from the earth.

Bring that boy and girl in Suzie's let us fit them out with comfort giving show and good suits for school day wear.—Suzie's.

French's New Sensation is coming
it is between here and Brandenburg, and it will probably show at Cloverport
some night this week.

The bottom of the Ohio river still continues to get near the top of the water, though there is still enough water left to permit the smaller boats to pass.

The Short line Engine has been repaired by Mr. Bateman Oliver and it is said to be in first class shape. Mr. Oliver will enter on duty this week at the shop as machinist.

J. W. Battum, of Sampson, went to Louisville Monday to sell his tobacco.
He says the new and tobacco crop is his chief business and he is not suffering for rain. His own crop, especially, is as good as ever raised.

Pierre's new coal office near the depot is just completed. It has two rooms, one encloses the head beam of the scales,
and the other a nice cosy little office,
the whole being a convenient and neat little structure.

Mr. James Allen, of Cincinnati, was in the city last week. Mr. Allen is said to be thinking of starting a school of education in this city. He is one of the finest educated young men in the country, and the school would, no doubt, be prosperous.

Mr. John Allen, who has been seen foreman on the Breckinridge road for a couple of years, resigned his place last week to take a foreman at the clay pit that is now in work. He has moved his residence to Louisville, that he may be near his work.

In Squire Hambleton's court, last Saturday, R. C. Mattingsly, of Belltown, was fined 45 for committing a breach of the peace several days ago, by stopping Squire Jeff Mullin on the public highway and being angry, boisterous, language, to mention a few words. He was very angry and Mattingsly spread himself considerably while on the witness stand. The court went to show that the offense was slight, but the court thought it sufficient to justify him in assessing the minimum fine in such cases. All of Belltown were present as witnesses, and all they claimed of their attendance, making the entire cost by Mr. Mattingsly $10.00.

PERSONAL.

F. W. Freise went to Brandenburg yesterday.
C. W. Neuman spent Sunday in Bell's Bottom.
Miss Annie Lassle is visiting at Mr. Tuck's
this week.

Henry Tucker, of Stephenport, was in the city Sunday.
Miss Florence Neville is visiting relatives
at Palville.
Miss Lizzie Hall is at Webster visiting her father, Mr. Wm. Hall.

Wedding of Rose, Indiana, returned from Louisville Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Logan returned Monday
from a visit to the Rock.

Mrs. Nellie Rector arrived last Friday from Louisville.

Mr. Orrville Gregory spent Sunday in Brandenburg—with his host.

Miss Ida Weissenberger is attending the teacher's institute at Cincinnati.

Miss Cora Turpin, Louisville, is the guest of Misses Lizzie and Tizzie Hall.

Mr. C. M. McGehee, of Union Star.

Mr. George Tarpin, of Louisville, is visiting.

Mrs. J. J. Dyer went last Tuesday to Millwood to visit her sister, Mrs. Mattingly.

Board of Hardinburg, and Miss Mattingly went to the Ter Spring.

W. Scott Cart, the clever Deputy Sheriff, of Union Star, was in the city last Saturday.

Amos Board, of Hardinburg, was in the city last week the guest of his brother Sam.

W. O. Allen and wife went to Hardinburg
Monday to visit their son.

Mr. W. H. Westcott, of Belltown, was for Parker Springs to visit friends and relatives.

Mr. Joe Weller, of Rome, was a passenger on the coast bound train last Thursday evening.

Mr. C. C. Morrison, of Palville, was here last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Green

Robinson.

Misses Graham and children returned Sunday from an extended visit to friends and relatives at Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Griffith, of Owingsboro, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Wau-kes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller, of Louisville, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Waukes

last week.

Misses Jeanie Wardard, after several weeks visit to friends and relatives in Hardinburg, is where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Matthews.

Misses Mattie and Anna Robb, of Louisville,
arrived yesterday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
W. G. Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. George May and son, Fred and daughter, Miss Kathie, of Cincinnati, are visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank, of Louisville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Almon Murray departed Saturday for Breckenridge where he will be the guest of the Board of Trade.

Misses Mattie and Anna Robb, of Louisville,
arrived yesterday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
W. G. Smart.

Mr. and Mrs. George May and son, Fred and daughter, Miss Kathie, of Cincinnati, are visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford, who has not been
in the best of health for several weeks, was
glad to say is improving.

Rev. S. C. Beck, of Ter Spring, here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. Morris Head, of Hardinburg, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hamer, daughter, Mrs.
Mary, of Louisville, are here about Aug. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteford,

